

Acceptable Use Policy

This Acceptable Use Policy ("AUP") describes acceptable use of and access to the Services offered by Vasion. BY ACCESSING OR USING THE SERVICES (INCLUDING THE WEBSITE), YOU/CUSTOMER AGREE TO THE TERMS OF THIS AUP. If you/Customer violate this AUP, authorize, or help others to do so, Vasion may immediately suspend or terminate your/Customer's use of the Services. Unless otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms used within this AUP have the same meaning as ascribed to such terms in the Master Service Agreement, located at: https://info.printerlogic.com/rs/338-HTA-134/images/Master_Software_Agreement_MSA_EN.pdf?version=0.

PROHIBITED USE AND CONTENT

You may not upload content or use the Services in a manner that Vasion believes:

1. Commits or encourages fraudulent or other illegal activities in violation of any applicable laws, international laws or treaties, regulations, legal agreements, Documentation, or Vasion's published policies;
2. Use, store, share, host, copy, distribute, display, publish, transmit, or send content that is or may reasonably be deemed offensive, inflammatory, hateful, defamatory, discriminatory, obscene, abusive, invasive of privacy, or harmful to others;
3. Violates or otherwise encroaches on the rights of others, including, but not limited to, infringing or misappropriating any intellectual property or proprietary right of Vasion or a third party;
4. Impersonates any person or entity or otherwise misrepresents your affiliation with a person or entity;
5. Modifies, alters, tampers with, repairs, or otherwise creates derivative works of the Services;
6. Reverse engineers, disassembles, or decompiles any part of the Services;
7. Accesses or uses (directly or indirectly) the Services in a way that avoids incurring fees or exceeding usage limits;
8. Disable, interfere with, abuse, disrupt, intercept, circumvent or otherwise violate the security of Vasion or Services;
9. Uses any high-volume automated means (including robots, spiders, scripts or similar data gathering or extraction methods) to access the Services or any other accounts, computer systems, or networks connected to the Services (each a "System");
10. Attempts to gain unauthorized access to any portion of the Services or System;
11. Violates the security or integrity of Vasion, a Service, or System, including, but not limited to:
 - Access or use without permission, including attempts to probe, scan, or test the vulnerability of a System or to breach any security or authentication measures used by a System;
 - Monitoring data or traffic on a System without permission;
 - Forging packet or email headers, or any part of a message describing its origin or route;
 - Uploading content that contains viruses, worms, corrupt files, Trojan horses, or other forms of corruptive code, or any other content that may compromise the Services or System; or
 - Hacking, destabilizing, or adapting the Services, or altering another website to falsely imply it is affiliated with the Services.
12. Connects to any users, hosts, or networks where you do not have permission to communicate with such users, hosts, or networks, including, but not limited to:
 - Monitoring or crawling a System so that such System is impaired or disrupted;
 - Conducting denial of service attacks;
 - Intentionally interfering with the proper functioning of any System, including any deliberate attempt to overload a system by any means;
 - Operating network services like open proxies, open mail relays, or open recursive domain name servers; or

- Using means (manual or electronic) to avoid any use limitations placed on a System, such as access and storage restrictions.
13. Distributes, publishes, sends, or facilitates unsolicited mass e-mailings, promotions, advertising, or solicitations, including commercial advertising and informational announcements;
 14. Alter, forge, or obscure mail headers or assume a sender's identity without the sender's express permission, nor collect replies to messages sent from another internet service provider if those messages violate this AUP or the acceptable use policy (or similar) of that provider;
 15. Is used to benchmark or compete with any of Vasion's offerings.

Vasion has the sole discretion to determine whether the content or your use of the Services is prohibited. All content that is provided to Vasion or actions that are performed via your account, whether provided or performed by Customer/you, permitted (directly or indirectly) users, affiliates, employees, contractors, and/or end users, are the sole responsibility of you/Customer.

MONITORING AND ENFORCEMENT

While not obligated to perform investigations, Vasion may:

1. Investigate violations of this AUP or misuse of the Services;
2. Investigate and help prevent security threats, fraud, or other illegal, malicious, or inappropriate activity;
3. Remove, disable access to, or modify any content or resource that Vasion reasonably believes violates this AUP or any other related agreement Vasion has with you/Customer; or
4. Suspend or terminate the Services to you/Customer for uses that violate this AUP or any other related agreement Vasion has with you/Customer. Vasion may report any activity that it suspects violates any law or regulation to appropriate law enforcement officials, regulators, or other appropriate third parties. Vasion's reporting may include disclosing any appropriate information belonging to you/Customer. Vasion also may cooperate with appropriate law enforcement agencies, regulators, or other appropriate third parties to help with the investigation and prosecution of illegal conduct by providing network, logs, and systems.

REPORT VIOLATIONS

You can report abuse of this AUP to legalteam@vasion.com.

MODIFICATIONS TO THE AUP

Vasion may, in its sole and absolute discretion, upon notice, modify this AUP from time to time. If you object to any such changes, your sole recourse shall be to cease using the Services. Continued use of the Services following notice of any such changes shall indicate your acknowledgement of such modification(s).
